The present copy comprises actually the most perfect and greatest national bibliography of Poland and must be counted among the finest of all national bibliographies ever compiled. The last volume, letter "Z" has not yet been published and will be supplied upon publication. Series III of the Bibliografia polska in its complete form as offered above, is not only the most important part of the work, but as its Series I, an alphabetical list for the XIXth century is obsolete — and its series II, a chronological list for 1455-1889, actually contained in its series III as far as the material is concerned, — the work offered here represents the most perfect and modern reference work for Polish literature covering the XVth to XVIIIth centuries.

Full red grained levant morocco, gilt stamped, with unidentified coat-of-arms on cover. London, 1889-95. $650.00

This monumental work by Stevens, containing 2107 documents, i.e. almost wholly unpublished manuscripts was built up from 9000 photographic negatives, which, after the work was issued to 200 subscribers only, were destroyed.

The documents mainly from the following public and private archives, are reproduced on special Holland paper:

Public Record Office of England; Royal Institution; Tower of London; Bureau des Affaires Etrangères, Paris; Collections of the Earl of Dartmouth, Earl of Carlisle, Marquis Abergavenny, Lord Auckland (now in the British Museum), et. al.

The present copy is one of the 100 which were bound in full morocco (the other 100 were in $\frac{1}{4}$ morocco) and in excellent condition, except for a few weak hinges, and slight rubbings on the bindings.

Each volume has as frontispiece an engraved portrait; volume 25 is the index volume and in regular print.

An indispensable reference work for the study of the American Revolution.
